

Open Class Training ACU Technology Class

You are receiving this memo because of your plans to attend one of JPS Interoperability Solutions' ACU Technology Open Training Classes. We offer excellent training on our products with information that can be utilized in your community where you make the difference. We have the best training staff and excellent training facilities available to instruct, field questions, and provide after-sale support. The class offers instructional and "hands on" training. Open class training dates and an email contact for registration and information are available on our web page at <http://www.jpsinterop.com/customer-service/jps-product-training/>. Please register in advance for training slots to attend a class.

The classes are (2) full days and start at 9 AM and complete by 5 PM. Dress is comfortable and casual. Training manuals are provided, and equipment is available for instructional demonstrations and hands-on practice. WAIS training, when offered, is an additional day. Lunch is not provided.

Classes are held at the training facility as follows:
